

Caution
Sounding are not to be made from these shores as they are very irregularly broken, and from their wild character they cannot be approached with safety.

SOUTH AMERICA - WEST COAST
SHEET 2
PATAGONIA

MAGELLAN STRAIT TO GULF OF PEÑAS

Compiled from Surveys by Captain P. P. King, Commander P. Stokes
and the Officers of H.M.S. Adventure & Beagle, 1828-30;
Captain R. C. Mayne C.R. and the Officers of H.M.S. Nassau, 1868-9;
Lieutenant S. T. S. Ledy, R.N., 1872-4;
Captains Sir George Nares, R.N., and J. F. Maclear, and the Officers of H.M.S. Alert, 1879, and from an Imperial German Government Survey, 1883-4.
The Archipelago of Queen Adelaide is from a Sketch Survey published by the German Government, 1895.
In brown, c. coarse, cl. clay, co. coral, d. dark, f. fine, g. gravel, gn. green, gy. grey, m. mud, r. rock, s. sand, sh. shells, sm. small, st. stones.
Figures on the land & bracketed against islands, show heights in feet above H.W. Sp.
Magnetic Variation in 1894, decreasing 3' annually.
SOUNDINGS IN FATHOMS
Lights, Alt. Alternating, F. Flashing, Gp. Group, Occ. Occulting, Rev. Revolving.

INSTITUTO DE LA PATAGONIA
- BIBLIOTECA CENTRAL - MAPOTECA N° F-119